Small Group Questions

Daniel 4:19-27

Review

- Go around the group and choose a (fictitious) “stage name” that would describe each person.
- Describe a vivid or a humorous dream that you have had.
- Share about a difficult conversation that you had with someone. What made this challenging?

Remind

- Why did the dream perplex and worry Daniel (v.19)?
- Describe the dimensions of the tree in the dream (v.20). What similarities are there to the Tower of Babel (Gen 11:4)?
- What did the tree provide, and to whom (v.21)?
- Who was represented in the dream by the tree (v.22)?
- What happened to the tree, and who it represented (v.23)?
- Who issued the decree against the king (v.24)?
- How long would the king be sent away (v.25)?
- What did the tree stump represent (v.26)?
- What did Daniel urge the king to do (v.27)? Why?

Respond

- The king was warned of God’s coming judgement, but did nothing about it. What does this say to you about his faith?
- In the dream, the band around the tree stump represented protection, and the dew represented God’s blessings. What does this say about God during times when we are tested?
- In what ways do you think our national leaders would lead differently if their hearts were more turned to God?
- What keeps us (like the king) from repenting even when we are clear about our wrongdoing?
- In what ways do you see pride function as a destructive force? How can we address the problem of pride in our lives today?
- You could end by reading together Daniel 4:27

Daniel 4:19-27 (NIVUK)

Daniel interprets the dream

¹⁹ Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was greatly perplexed for a time, and his thoughts terrified him. So the king said, 'Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning alarm you.'

Belteshazzar answered, 'My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its meaning to your adversaries! ²⁰ The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth, ²¹ with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing food for all, giving shelter to the wild animals, and having nesting places in its branches for the birds – ²² Your Majesty, you are that tree! You have become great and strong; your greatness has grown until it reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to distant parts of the earth.

²³ 'Your Majesty saw a holy one, a messenger, coming down from heaven and saying, "Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field, while its roots remain in the ground. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven; let him live with the wild animals, until seven times pass by for him."

²⁴ 'This is the interpretation, Your Majesty, and this is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king: ²⁵ you will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like the ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over all kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes. ²⁶ The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven rules. ²⁷ Therefore, Your Majesty, be pleased to accept my advice: renounce your sins by doing what is right, and your wickedness by being kind to the oppressed. It may be that then your prosperity will continue.'
